

Kelsey Newsletter – Issue 9
Wednesday 10th January, 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you had a good break during the festive season (or maybe you will have a break now the children are returned to school!) I must say that the children seem to have settled back to school very quickly and are now very involved in their new topics. Some of the homework that children brought in last term was really excellent and showed their interest in their own learning.

Curriculum Overviews

The website has been updated with information about your children's learning for January and February. See the CLASSES section.

Sponsored Read – Usborne Books

We are planning to have a sponsored read for World Book Day to raise money for new reading books. Further information and sponsorship forms will be sent out soon.

Rhubarb Theatre

We will be having a visit from a theatre group on 20th February. The Rhubarb Theatre will be performing 'Simon's Shed' for the school. They will also be running a workshop based on Julia Donaldson's "Charlie Cook's Favourite Book" for Robins to support their topic work. Again, further information regarding financial contributions will be sent out shortly.

First Aid training for Hedgehogs (Y3&4)

Once again, our thanks go to Mr Watson for volunteering his expertise and providing some valuable life skills to Mr Brown's class today. They have been very engaged and seem to have really enjoyed their day.

Clubs

Thanks to all who have supported our clubs over the Autumn term. Clubs information for the Spring is attached to this letter. Have a look and see what your child might be interested in trying.

The next newsletter will be on Wednesday 24th January.

Yours sincerely

MJ Ashmead

Mr M Ashmead (Interim Headteacher)
