Aims

This is Kelsey Primary Schools Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed.

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form.

Freedom of Information Policy – Kelsey Primary School

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

Legal Framework

- The Freedom of Information Act 2000 and any revisions or updates

Note

- It is the intention of Kelsey Primary School to make freely available, on request, any information that is not confidential in nature (e.g. pupil or staff personal information) – where information requested may identify an individual we will do all we can to provide such information in an alternative form that will not identify individuals.

Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as ‘classes’. These are contained in section 1 of this scheme.
